LABOR AND UNITED WAY

Helping People Together

LABOR GIVES

WORKPLACE CAMPAIGN

United Way of Trumbull County and the labor movement go way back with a partnership that continues to build a stronger community. Over the years, labor has given millions of dollars to help those in need in Trumbull County and continue to give through workplace campaigns. United Way and labor's umbrella organizations worked together to create a mechanism for payroll deduction that is still the most significant source of funding for our United Way.

LABOR ADVOCATES

COMMUNITY ISSUES

Labor advocates to improve the lives of individuals and working families in Trumbull County. Labor unites with United Way to make sure basic human needs are being met, children can succeed academically, and families can thrive. Like United Way, Labor understands the importance of bringing people together to build a stronger community where we work and live.

LABOR VOLUNTEERS

UNITED WAY @ WORK

Each year, teams of workers volunteer to help with community projects like helping a senior or veteran with yard projects and installing the BORN LEARNING TRAIL (a series of interactive signs with activities for adults to engage in with young children).

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Individuals representing labor volunteer to be Board Members for United Way in Trumbull County to provide their skills and perspective while gaining first hand insight about community needs.
